

Prophecy Against My Wicked Land Of Kazakhstan

“Oh Kazakhstan, My evil land, worshipping the Devil openly, and doing all things evil in attempting to set up My New World Order of sin in attempting to set up My Man of Sin, the Antichrist. For I see all you do, and Am displeased, even brimming full of anger against you, Oh wicked Kazakhstan. For you shall be reduced in size, and plenty shall die for serving the Devil, My enemy. For I know all you do in your New World Order ambitions, center of world occultism. For I shall send the Russians against you in military battle, and your oil revenues shall be set apart and controlled by My people. For you shall no longer use it for the foolishness of Satan the Devil, My enemy, but shall be set apart for My Christian peoples. For no longer shall you serve the Devil My enemy in your wicked land of sin, but shall be eliminated by My plagues which shall consume My wicked people forever. For few serve Me in the land of Kazakhstan, but My Christian people are strong, though few in number, enduring your wickedness of Satan. So few they are, but they shall remain before Me forever, enduring plague and all manner of wickedness. For they are strong in Me, and will do My will, for My grace is strong in them, for they will do My will, Oh Kazakh people. For I know who are Mine, and they will serve Me forever, having overcome the wiles of the Devil. Faithful they are, and will endure before Me forever, Oh My Christian people. Oh repent while you can, Oh wicked Kazakh people, and come away from My enemy, living before Me forever. Your God has spoken, amen.”
